OBITUARY

On February 22, 1922, in the city of San Angelo, State of Texas, a darling baby girl was born to Berry and Elizabeth Craft, whom they named Ruby Lee.

She was reared and educated in Austin, Texas. Her early Christian training was obtained in the baptist church.

In 1945, she took up residency in Los Angeles, California.

April 8, 1946, she was joined in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Arthur Lee Wynn. To this union was added two children, one daughter and one son.

1946, she was saved and filled with the Holy Ghost at the Emmanuel Church of God In Christ and grew spiritually under the pastorage of the late Bishop S. M. Crouch. She served faithfully on the Evangelist Personal Workers and Deaconess Boards. She was a faithful member of the Ministers' Wives Council for over twenty-five (25) years. She was a dedicated worker and would assist in any area of the Lord's work.

Sister Wynn was a lover of young people and devoted much time to them. She chaperoned a young group called The Missionettes of which her daughter was a member. In her neighborhood she was loved and highly respected for she exemplified love. She was a devoted wife and mother. Her Home-Going on Sunday, August 4, 1985, brought a sadness to many.

Many precious memories shall be treasured by her devoted husband of thirty-nine (39) years, Elder Arthur Lee Wynn; one (1) son, Mr. Arthur Lee Wynn, Jr.; one (1) daughter and son-in-law, Evangelist Barbara Jean and Elder Leslie Bean, all of Los Angeles; one (1) god-daughter, Latricia McCoy of Far Rockaway, New York; one (1) brother, Mr. Walter Craft of Texas; two (2) aunts, Mrs. Eula Richmond and Mrs. Ola Singleton of Austin, Texas; five (5) grandchildren, Kevin, Karen, Daniel, Ola and Leslie, all of Los Angeles, California, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

"Some Day"

Some day this tent I'm living in
Will finish its short quest;
If Jesus tarries till that time,
I then shall be at 'Rest.'

Some day this hand will folded be;
No more to work or play;
Someone will fold it tenderly,
And put my pen away.

Some day I'll rest where all is still;
Not caring who shall place me there,
But not for long for I'll come forth
The crown of life to wear.

To me it is a crowning day;
The day for which I live,
The day I give back to the earth
What it, to me, did give.

And then to God, my blessed Lord,
My spirit will ascend;
It's not my own, thank God, some day
It will return to Him.

Some day, O! hasten onward, 'Time',
My soul disquieted is
To stay here, yet my only prayer;
"My will be lost in His."
